

BRILLIANT WEDDING AT CHURCH

Edwin Johnson Claims Miss Saylor For His Bride Wednesday Evening

A brilliant church wedding marked the nuptials of Edwin Johnson and Miss Fern Saylor who were united in marriage by Rev. Henry Waltz Wednesday evening in the presence of 150 guests and friends. The church was daintily decorated in white climbing roses and ferns and after the rendition of Schuman's beautiful Traumerlei the bridal party came up the aisle to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, the flower girls, little Misses Saylor and Franklin, dainty in their white organdies and ribbons followed by the brides maid Miss Lillian Johnson in lavender satin and Miss Elva Saylor, maid of honor in pink satin. They were attended by Messrs Larson and Huntington. The bride in beautiful white tulle with bouquet of roses and conventional veil and orange blossoms was accompanied by her father the party being met at the altar by the groom and the officiating clergyman who spoke the words which made the happy couple one.

After the service and benediction the invited guests showered the bride and groom with congratulations and there was much feasting and merry making.

Many out of town relatives were present at the marriage and the young couple were the recipients of many handsome gifts. They will reside on the groom's ranch in the southern suburbs of the valley.

ARM SHATTERED AT QUARRY

Domenico Strombini, an employee in the quarry above Agua Caliente, had the misfortune to have his arm so badly shattered Tuesday that amputation may be necessary. He was tamping a charge of dynamite with a crow bar when it exploded, the bar tearing away one arm and severing a main artery.

Dr. Thomson was summoned and is making every effort to save the member.

Mrs. Robert Potter Hill entertained the Glen Ellen Women's Club most delightfully at her home near Eldridge yesterday.

GOES TO CITY AND SUICIDES

Charles Carlson of El Verano Shoots Himself Near San Francisco Day After His Arrival There

Charles Carlson who has been making his home on a chicken ranch near El Verano with his two nephews, Albert and Samuel Johnson, committed suicide by shooting himself in the head, at Lake Merced in the suburbs of San Francisco last Saturday.

Carlson left here Friday morning and was apparently rational and had no financial or physical trouble. Temporary insanity however must have prompted the deed.

From papers on his person it developed that his home was here in El Verano and that he had left a letter thought to be a will giving his ranch to the two brothers, Albert and Sam Johnson. The document had been executed some time ago and not immediately prior to the tragedy as supposed.

Coroner Phillips, upon hearing of the act of self destruction and not knowing that Carlson left relatives came over here to the ranch believing it to be a case for the Public Administrator. Attorney R. A. Poppe however had the affairs of the boys already in hand so Coroner Phillips with drew.

The body of the deceased rancher who was about 60 years of age was taken to Halsteads funeral parlors and the interment took place Tuesday in San Francisco.

Besides the ranch which is unencumbered Carlson left a few hundred dollars in the bank.

REPORT ON HIGHWAY

Charles M. Blaney, chairman of the State Highway Commission, writes as follows to the Supervisors of Napa County concerning the progress of work on the Black Point Cut-off:

I am very gratified to be able to inform you that the steel for the bridge is already in California and now being fabricated to shape, so that the contractors now hope to be able to complete this bridge before the first of September, and we are very anxious to immediately start the work of completing this link between Petaluma Creek bridge and Reclamation, so as to have it already when the bridge is completed.

Shakespeare to be Honored Today

Pageant to be Ushered in by Spring Festival This Morning at High School Grounds and Excerpts From Great Dramas Will be Given in the Afternoon and Evening

Today is the day of the Sonoma Valley Women's Club's great May Festival and the Shakespearean Pageant in honor of the Tercentenary. The elaborate program for this great event will be presented at the High School grounds this morning, the Queen's procession starting the festivities when Her Gracious Majesty, Marion Benjamin, regal ruler of the day, surrounded by her ladies in waiting Misses Rensch, Glenn, Batto, Weaver and Panovia will stage the beautiful coronation ceremonies.

The order of program will be as follows:

- 10:45 a. m.
1. A—Queen's Procession, B—Queen's Coronation and Song, C—Response.
2. Dutch Dance, Tulevita School.
3. Basket Drill, Little Girls (trained by Mrs. Von Hacht).
4. Drill by "Knights of King Arthur."
5. Dance "Sunset" Eleanor Rensch.
6. Folk Dances, Glen Ellen School.
7. May Pole Dance, El Verano School.

After the morning exercises, refreshments will be sold by the Club ladies at the gaily decorated booths and many will picnic in the shade of the trees which afford a cool and inviting retreat on the school grounds.

The afternoon spectators will witness one of the most ambitious and inspiring spectacles ever presented in the country and the tribute to the great and immortal poet dramatist will be the presentation of the pageant glimpsing the great characters, versatile themes and familiar episodes from the plays, Macbeth, The Tempest, Hamlet, Merchant of Venice, Mid Summer Night's Dream.

The pageant begins with a procession of the characters to be essayed and in their rich costumes and make-up the open air theatre will seem indeed the natural home of the classic drama. Here first will be beheld the cauldron of the Witches, Macbeth, Act V scene I, "Double double toil and trouble" presaging all the later tragedy in the play. Shakespeare himself (Professor Borst) then appears having been evolved from the incantation of his three creations and reveals to his hearers the Masque from the Tempest, Act IV Scene 1, "This is the most majestic vision, and harmonious charmingly," such are Shakespeare's lines. Next follows the Soliloquy of Act III Scene 1 and the plaintive pathetic appeal of Ophelia, Hamlet, Act II Scene 5 "We know what we are, but know not what we may be."

"Hark Hark the Lark" will be a pleasing interlude by the entire cast, succeeding which will be the great Court Scene Act IV Scene 1 of the Merchant of Venice where in Portia is the star.

The climax to the note sounded in the foreboding at the beginning of the dramatic cycle is reached in the presentation of Scenes from Act 1, Act 11 and the Sleep Walking Scene which give promise of being a bit of soul stirring tragedy well and intelligently acted. "The raven himself is hoarse that croaks the fatal entrance of Duncan, etc."

The dire tragedy in which Lady Macbeth is the principal will be followed by the most delightful fantastic and comedy scenes from Act II, Act III and Act V of Midsummer Night's Dream where Titania and the Fairies and the merry fellow Puck and his frolicsome companions reveal the versatility of Shakespeare's pen and the fertility of his brain in delightful contrast to the heavier themes of which he is the world's greatest master.

The cast will be as follows: Shakespeare, R. W. Borst; Ariel, his messenger, Harold Hotz; Three Witches, from Macbeth, Mrs. Duhring, Mrs. Von Hacht, Miss Minnie Cook; Iris, Mrs. A. W. Adler; Ceres, Miss Zolita Bates; Juno, Mrs. McElney; Hamlet, Mr. W. T. Holt; Ophelia, Mrs. Ralph Hotz;

Portia, Miss Nancy Bates; Shylock, Ralph Hotz; Bassanio, Russell Prestwood; Antonio, Joe McMullen; Gratiano, Irving Shepherd; Duke, Mrs. H. Wicker; Lady Macbeth, Carrie Burlingame; Macbeth, Ray E. Button; Titania, Gertrude Breitenbach; Four Fairies, Margaret Camanetti, Matilda Boccoli, Miss Goldsmith, Marie Helberg; Oberon, M. H. Tracie; Puck, Stephen Duhring; Bottom, Clyde Johanson; Quince, Rodney Prestwood; Snug, Sumner Brand; Flute, Bunker Dresel; Snout, Stuart Potter; Starveling, Donald Cameron.

The production will be repeated at 8:30 in Union Hall. Dancing will conclude the performance.

WILL DEDICATE SCHOOL FRIDAY

New Grammar School will be Scene of a Notable Gathering and Interesting Ceremonies

Sonoma's $30,000 Grammar School building will be formally dedicated next Friday evening and those who attend on this notable occasion will participate in very interesting ceremonies.

The school trustees Messrs Dresel, Bill and Thomson will address the gathering and Principal Prestwood will welcome the patrons and friends of the school. In behalf of the Native Sons, Mayor Von Hacht will present a handsome hand-painted Bear Flag and City Trustee Chas. McDevett will bestow the American Flag presented by the Loyal Order of Moose. These gifts are beautiful tributes to the school and their presentation and acceptance will be the occasion of much enthusiasm.

Vocal and orchestral music will intermingle in the literary program which will conclude with dancing in the new auditorium and general inspection of the classrooms.

WEDDING BELLS TO RING SUNDAY

The wedding of Miss Albina Eraldi and Harry Quartaroli will take place Sunday at the St. Francis Church in the presence of the relatives and close friends of the popular young couple. The ceremony will be performed at high-noon by Rev. Father Comerford, a pretty coincidence of this fact being that the popular pastor's first wedding in Sonoma was when he officiated at the marriage of Mr. Quartaroli's sister, Mrs. Fochetti, and his last here will be probably that of Harry Quartaroli and his fair fiancée tomorrow. The young couple have been the recipients of many beautiful and costly gifts. Miss Eraldi is the daughter of pioneer residents and sister of Mrs. Sam Sebastiani who will assist at the ceremonies and will wear a handsome imported costume of gray satin. Mr. Quartaroli is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Quartaroli and brother of two of Sonoma's handsome matrons, Mrs. Florence Adler and Mrs. L. Fochetti.

The bride will be radiant in a beautiful and appropriate costume and will carry a shower bouquet and will wear the conventional veil. An elaborate wedding breakfast will follow the ceremony.

After a short honeymoon in the South the young couple will go to house keeping here.

DRY MEETING

The "Dry" campaign, launching the fight for prohibition in California was launched here yesterday at the M. E. church where a few zealous church workers gathered and listened to addresses by Mrs. Ellen Pringle W. C. T. U. of San Jose and W. C. Whitaker who spoke in behalf of the amendments which seek to destroy the wine industry of California and enforce laws in place of moral fibre upon our prosperous and intelligent citizenship.

Mrs. Mary Haskell died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Zigler at Schellville Wednesday, aged 85 years. She was the mother of G. P. Haskell, Secretary of the County Poultry Federation.

SONOMA VISITORS IN TRAGEDY

Morris Goldstein Killed in Quarrel After Motoring From El Verano to Visit in Calistoga

Morris Goldstein, a summer visitor at Ziefmanns Resort, El Verano, who was over in Calistoga with a number of guests last Friday on a motor trip, was shot and fatally wounded by Sol Frank, an old enemy whom he met there and with whom he had bitter words. The El Verano visitors went to Heck and Goldberg's resort after arriving at Calistoga and about 7 o'clock Goldstein and Frank engaged in a quarrel, bad blood having existed between them. Frank becoming enraged went to his tent and produced a gun with which the fatal shot was fired.

Goldstein died the same night and Sol Frank has been charged with homicide. Both men were from San Francisco and engaged in the jewelry business there.

FINED FOR ASSAULTING R. CANTONI

Joe Cassasa charged with assault by Romeo Cantoni, proprietor of the Pioneer City Bakery was found guilty and fined $20 by Judge Small Thursday.

Cassasa tried to make it stick that a knife picked up at the scene of the encounter was the property of Cantoni, but the latter disclaimed any knowledge of the weapon. Cantoni claimed Cassasa attacked him with a rock and he was badly cut and bruised.

Cassasa had the alternative of $20 or 20 days so chose the former penalty.

B Bordon had but one blow out on his 600 mile trip South and says his car "rambled right along" and that all the roads were good outside of Sonoma Valley. About time we got our Highway notions for all travelers say the same.

Mrs. E. Gorzoli of San Francisco is here for the Quartaroli-Eraldi wedding.

Returning to Republican Party

W. T. Rutherford of the progressive state central committee, and for many years city attorney of Napa and one of the best-known members of the bar in central California, has just declared for the regular Republican ticket.

"The progressive party is dead," said Rutherford. "Believing that many reforms were necessary in the old party I joined the progressive ranks, but now that the progressive party has outlived its usefulness and the Republican party has worked its own reforms, I am very glad to return to the old party and shall do all I can for the regular Republican ticket."

"I am thoroughly convinced that only through the Republican party can success and prosperity in this country be attained. We all look to this party for the security of safety of the nation in the time of crisis."

"I believe that the regular Republican ticket is the only real representation of the Republican party, as its names were selected by a statewide conference attended by over five hundred in person, while three hundred more were represented by proxies. Inasmuch as this convention was composed of the members of the state central committee and members of the county central committee, I must consider it the only bona fide gathering of Republicans that has placed a ticket before the voters for the primary election."

The action of Mr. Rutherford in refusing to heed the siren calls of the so-called "united" ticket is similar to that being taken by thousands of other republicans in California, according to advices received by the regular Republican campaign committee. The progressives who are returning to the Republican party with good motives are for the regular republican Bordwell-to-Chapman ticket.

We have so many interesting and vital solutions of great national problems just on the verge of practical application, the hopes of our millions of people are so intent on vast schemes for betterment that it would be more than a calamity to plunge the country into a crises over the European war just at this time. We are naturally seeking to make life easier and better under the American flag—to blight it all would be a crime.

There are none of us but feel some amount of interest in the progress of the following movement which has long been advocated and commends itself to some economists.

WASHINGTON, April 20—A bill to establish twelve regional land mortgage banks, as part of the administration rural credits legislation program, was perfected today by the house banking committee and will be urged for passage next week by house leaders.

The proposed banks would make loans on land through national farm loan associations. Stock would be taken by the federal treasury, but under the amendment adopted by the committee today no payments would be made on such stock until the bank in question had received applications for loans from at least ten loan associations.

Subscriptions to stock also would be made by the loan associations and in any land bank that bank would be authorized to apply semi-annually to the payment and retirement of the shares issued to represent the subscriptions to the original capital, when they had subscribed to $750,000, 25 per cent of all the sums thereafter subscribed until all such original capital stock was retired at par.

At least 20 per cent of the capital stock of any land bank paid in by the land association must consist of cash in the bank's vaults, of deposits in member banks of the federal reserve system or of investments in negotiable interest bearing securities, approved by the federal farm loan board. Not less than five per cent of the capital stock must be invested in United States bonds.

Representative Moss, a member of the joint committee of congress which framed the original bill, reintroduced it today as amended by the banking committee.

The quickening of the appreciation of the great works of Wm. Shakespeare is what the Tercentenary is doing and will result in the awakening to the realization that after all the great playwright has no equal on the stage today. It is because this is a busy age that our interest in Shakespeare has subsided during the past few years.

The greatest of dramas must be almost translated to be intelligible to many, so fraught with meaning is every phase, so full of forceful truth veiled in the beguities of his wondrous vocabulary. The modern photo drama tells but a part of the Shakespeare we learn to know through the lines we must read or hear. It is the genius which filtered every shade of human experience, every phase of nature itself that we revere, whether this genius be Shakespeare or some other so named as to indicate so colossal a figure matters little. We revere the spirit which created this proud epoch in English literature.

So the production scheduled for today by our club women is bringing us into touch with the wave of revival of popular appreciation which always transcends genius. Let us all participate in this proud day and night arranged in honor of the Tercentenary.

EASTER EGGS DELIGHT "KIDDIES"

"Flying Needle" Ladies Provide Merry Time For Children Last Sunday

The Egg Hunt arranged by the ladies of the "Flying Needles" for the children of the Valley on Easter Sunday afternoon brought joy and merriment to about two hundred little participants who gathered on our historic Plaza and brought to light the dozens of wondrous eggs and novelties which their fantastic bunnies had left for them. It was a pretty sight to see the little tots in all their Easter raiment searching with wondrous eyes along the walks and in the tall grass for the much coveted prizes and to hear the exclamations of delight as they came upon the vari colored eggs and the Easter confections which the thoughtful hostesses of the day had provided. Not one child went away disappointed for the good ladies of the Flying Needles were there to make the little hearts glad and to say that they succeeded would be putting it mild for the parents and spectators enjoyed the joy hunt too and the day was in every respect a decided success.

THE GOING WAS GOOD BUT THE COMING?

Joe Andrieux, popular driver for the Mission Garage went to Calistoga Saturday to take over three witnesses to the Morris Goldstein hearing. Andrieux was under orders from Sheriff Kelton of Napa County to get the witnesses there and when a fellow working for the Sheriff the lid is lifted so Joe speeded up going over the glassy surface of the highway. On the return trip however it was the glassy eye of a speed cop that got Andrieux's number with the result that he got one of Napa County's "let you off easy" fines of 20 plunks which nicked his bank roll somewhat but then Joe has enough left to buy a Mercer, a silk shirt and a job on the Index Tribune so he should worry!

Mrs. Kate Murray has been the guest of El Verano relatives.

HONOR WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

The twenty second wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Dobbel was honored by the ladies of the "Flying Needles" who tendered them a costume surprise party at the home of Mrs. Lydiard. The rooms and table were decorated with mock orange blossoms and the company proceeded to the dining room in bridal procession to the strains of the wedding march where a most bounteous repast was served and where numberless good wishes were bestowed upon the popular couple who are beloved by a wide circle of friends throughout the valley and are frequently the recipients of just such expressions of esteem as was bestowed by the congenial coterie comprising the "Flying Needles."

The Club meets next Wednesday at the artistic home of Mrs. Jack Picetti.

ANNUAL PICNIC OF ST. FRANCIS CHOIR

The annual picnic of the Choir and Altar boys of St. Francis Church was held on Tuesday and as it was an ideal day the outing was greatly enjoyed. Joe Ryan's large tally-ho was filled with the merry makers who journeyed to Napa where a fine picnic lunch was spread and a moving picture show was later enjoyed by many of the party.

Rev. Father Comerford and some of the chaperons made the trip in the pastor's handsome new automobile.

Beloved Priest to Leave Here For Berkeley

Reverend Father Comerford Called to New Parish and Leave Taking Causes Deep Regret

The announcement that Reverend T. M. Comerford, beloved pastor of St. Francis Church had been assigned to new duties at West Berkeley by His Grace Archbishop Hanna, was received with keenest regret by his many friends throughout the Valley. While congratulating him on the assignment to the larger field whence he goes, his parishoners are reluctant to part with a priest who has been so kindly, so enthusiastic, so indefatigable in furthering the every interest of the local parish and their sorrow is shared in by the departing pastor himself who leaves his many friends here with the greatest reluctance. Men, women and children regret the change and though they may grow ever so fond of the incoming priest, Rev. Father Moran of Tracy, their hearts will always hold a warm place for the kindly gentleman who is to leave us Wednesday. Father Comerford has been the inspiration and guide of many young men of Sonoma and has accomplished great good in the community which esteems him so highly.

The Young Men's Institute will tender him a farewell the coming week and his parishoners will present him with a handsome gift.
